1. Thomas MYDLEBROKE was born before 1495.[1] The birth date assumes he would have to be at least 16 to have been listed in the 1511 muster roll.

He was listed in a Muster Roll for Lord Clifford in 1511 in Carleton-in-Craven, Yorkshire, England.[1] Thomas MEDYLBROK jun - a bow

He was listed in a Loan Book in 1522 in Carleton-in-Craven, Yorkshire, England[2] Thomas MYDDYLBROKE, t[enant] to Lord Clyfford - 30s

Thomas was listed in a Lay Subsidy in 1524 in Carleton-in-Craven, Yorkshire, England[3] Thomas MYDDYLBROKE - assessed at £8, taxed at 7s [sic]

He was listed in a Lay Subsidy in 1525 in Carleton-in-Craven, Yorkshire, England[4] Thomas MYDLEBROKE - assessed at £14, taxed at 7s

He died before 1543.[5] The death date assumes that Thomas died before he was replaced by John in the Lay Subsidies. There were two people called Thomas MYDLEBROKE at Carleton-in-Craven in the early 16th century, and since Thomas listed in the Muster Roll is called 'Jun' we can assume the other Thomas was 'Senior'. It is not easy to differentiate between them through the early Lay Subsidies, but analysis suggests that one was in Carleton itself while the other was in Lothersdale township. The Lothersdale family seem to have been assessed slightly higher for tax purposes and the succesor at Lothersdale (William) appears to be older than the succesor at Carleton (John), which is why I have assumed it was Thomas 'Jun' at Carleton.

Thomas MYDLEBROKE had the following child:

1.1. John MYDDLEBROKE was born before 1522. The birth date assumes he was at least 16 when he married in 1538.

He was listed in a Lay Subsidy in 1545 in Carleton-in-Craven, Yorkshire, England[6] John MIDDILBROKE - assessed at £4, taxed at 4d

John was listed in a Lay Subsidy in 1547 in Carleton-in-Craven, Yorkshire, England[7] John MYDDLEBROKE - assessed at £5, taxed at 3s 4d

He died before Nov 1557.[8] He must have died before his widow Elizabeth wrote her will.

John's parentage is assumed as the only family previously settled at Conistone.

Registered on 25th September 1861 by John (x) HORSFIELD of Barrowford, in attendance. William was apparently not baptised, and there are no other primary sources available to establish his parentage. However, there is plenty of evidence that the Middlebrook families in Colne at that time originated from Conistone-in-Craven and a process of elimination means that William's parents were almost certainly James and his second wife Phyllis.
